

COMMUNITY MEETUP

Results from the ETF 2022 New Learning Event and planning for 2023

02 DECEMBER 2022, 14:00 – 15:00 CET

ONLINE

Organized by ETF

SUMMARY:

The Community Meetup, organised within the ETF Innovation 2022 Week, will aim at updating the members of the ETF Community of Innovative Educators as well as any other interested participants on the results of the 2022 ETF New Learning Event (28-29 November 2022).

During the webinar, the three winning practices of the 2022 ETF Innovative Teaching and Learning Award will be presented through the words of their respective innovators, and the main results of the New Learning Event will be shared with the community members.

Also, the future plans of the ETF Community of Innovative Educators will be discussed with the participants, who will be able to express their interests and preferences on the future activities of the community.
